GRAINS STRONGER ON WET REPORTS

Continued rains interfere with threshing and shipping, and Chicago prices jump.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—Wheat advanced today as a result of continued rains that interfered with threshing and shipping. After opening unchanged to 4 cents higher, the market started at a moderate advance, surging above yesterday's close.

The close was unassisted at 45¢ to 46¢ up.

Corn reflected the wheat strength, opening prices which ranged from 4¢ to 5¢ higher, were improved by slight additional gains.

The wheat was steady at 26¢ to 27¢.

The wet weather caused shipments in and out to decline.

Provisions were steady despite some light rainstorms that fell at West Peoria.
